From our New York Correspondent.

NEW YORK, June 20th.

It is stated in our morning papers that the officers of the U. S. Marshal who had the honor and I suppose I must add the pleasure of serving as a body guard to the poor fugitive Burns from Boston, to the Capital of Virginia, were entertained, at their arrival at Richmond, at a public festival. It is not stated whether this celebration was at the bid time of the State, or City, or Federal authorities—or of private citizens—nor is it very important to know; for the moral sentiment which could devise and carry thro' such an entertainment, attaches to the city, state and country, and the individuals thereof, its blistering stigma. So too Senator Douglass, in his visit to this city, had an ovation after the manner of such things, by such people as joined in complimenting him—the retainers of the Custom House, the hirelings of office. But in view of such compliments, which that is exposed to the danger of being consigned sooner for the most meritorious service—with a public dinner, will not feel his cheek tingle with indignation at what an honest man—after such abuse as I have glanced at above of public festivals—must look upon as little other than an insult. When such a Traitor to Freedom as Douglass, and the mercenaries of the U. S. police, on a successful hunt after fugitives from Slavery are complimented with public dinners and torch-light processions, men who respect themselves and honor their country, will necessarily decline any such compliments.

The parties from this vicinity who made the grand expedition over the Illinois Railroad and up the Mississippi to the Falls of St Anthony are returning and all are loud in admiration of what they have seen of a grand country and of what was accomplished on so grand a scale by the energetic and intelligent projectors of that most Imperial Progress. It has expanded many minds and will eventually open many money bags, for the promotion of the growing interests of that new world, now for the first time revealed to so many of our quiet citizens. It was a wisely conceived excursion in all points of view and considerable as must have been the expenditure of the Companies, defraying its cost, it will come back, I think, in the increased value of the stock of such Companies, and in the confidence as to the resources and capabilities of the glorious region traversed by the tourists, which personal observation has begotten.

To-day, for the first time, we are beginning to have real summer weather, though heretofore this month has been beautiful, but very un-American in its temperature—resembling more that of the North of England, or Scotland, than our own ordinarily burning June. As one consequence of moist and temperate skies we have the greatest abundance of delicious strawberries, which flourish best under such skies, and of the green vegetables of the season—and they are cheap, as they are fine—indeed almost the only cheap things in market. We have cholera in our city and around us—but no one now regards that disease with terror, and few or none deny themselves—as indeed they should not—the luxury of fresh ripe fruit, and vegetables, from any apprehension of this disease. It is now naturalized apparently among our acclimated diseases, as a product of filth, excessive dissipation and the most careless or licentious habits. Fifty-seven fatal cases occurred last week, in localities where the wonder really is that—instead of 57, there were not ten times that number. Yet so completely imbecile appear our Public Authorities, or so tied up, or trammelled by technicalities, that no effectual efforts is systematically made to purify and cleanse the city. The Board of Health is to meet to-day, and there will be a spasmodic partial sweeping and then all will relax again. I do not know how it is, nor why it is, but self-government, as illustrated by the workings of our City Corporation, is, in all save gathering a huge amount of taxes, pretty much of a failure.

PUBLIC DINNER TO SLAVE-CATCHERS.—A complementary Festival was given by the enlightened and public-spirited citizens of Richmond, Virginia, to Marshal RILEY and his fellow slave-catchers from Boston, who carried back into captivity the fugitive Burns. We think Commander Ingraham would have been entitled to a similar compliment from the citizens of Richmond, Virginia, if, instead of rashly and unconstitutionally liberating Martin Koszta from Austrian clutches he had stowed away that fugitive in the hold of, the St. Louis, securely manacled and handcuffed, and then quietly conveyed him to Trieste and delivered him up to his old Austrian masters from whom he had made his escape. The N. Y. Tribune says of the feast:

We trust the Marshal and sub-marshals were able to digest the viands without nightmare, though their position strongly reminds us of the reply of a backwoodsman who had tried to eat a porcupine, and whom we asked how it tasted. He said the meat seemed well enough in itself, but somehow or other, the quills seemed to prick as you ate. We presume something pricked a little at Richmond.

☞ The Morning News of yesterday, alluding to Senator WALKER's persevering exertions in behalf of the Homestead Bill, complains that "he receives no more commendation from the coalition press in this State, for his efforts in this direction, than for his opposition to the Nebraska bill." So far as the Sentinel is concerned, the complaint is unfounded. We have given full credit to Senator WALKER for his action on both those questions. For his unflinching opposition to the Nebraska Iniquity and his devoted advocacy of the Homestead Bill, he has deserved well of the People of Wisconsin. We are glad to see that even the News, with all its pro-Slavery tendencies, applauds Mr. WALKER's course.

A SUCCESSFUL HOAX.—A rich hoax has been played on the Governor of Matagos. He received a very flattering letter from New York, by mail, with some verses of a fulsome character, with which he was so pleased that he caused them to be issued in a daily paper forthwith. After they were published, it was ascertained they were written after the fashion of an acrostic, the initials composing the words, "Vive los Filibusteros!" The papers were then seized and destroyed.

The Matamoras Governor is not the only great man who has been caught in an acrostic trap.—Our neighbor of the Wisconsin fell a victim to the same game.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.—The Washington Star announces that there is now no member of Congress from New Hampshire in Washington, all of them having gone to Concord, as the Star infers, to "attend to the more important business of helping their legislature to choose United States Senators."

THE CONDUCTORS AND ENGINEERS ON THE M. & M. RAILROAD.—The Janesville Standard of yesterday pays the following deserved compliment to the employees of the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. Company:

Mr. French, the conductor [illegible] gentleman in every respect [illegible] both ladies and gentlemen that in Messrs. MILL, OLIN, SAGE and PRICE, between Milwaukee and Madison, they will meet with every attention and civility, and will find them ready to give all information asked for. They are all the right kind of men for their posts.

The engineers also are gentlemanly men, and always happy to show their engines, and explain all about them, when not under way. At least all we have conversed with, and in special we may mention Mr. SMITH.

AN IMPORTANT MISUNDERSTANDING CORRECTED.—There seems to be a misunderstanding in some quarters, as to the action recently taken in withdrawing lands from market for railroad and other purposes, at the instance of gentlemen in Congress representing wholly, or in part, the States in which such lands are situated. The impression is that those withdrawals exclude the lands from pre-emption, and thus hinder the settlement of the land States. On examining the President's proclamation, and making inquiries at the President's Department, we have ascertained that in proper Department, we have ascertained that in proper Department, we have ascertained that in proper

TWO MILLIONS IN GOLD—INTERESTING NEWS.

New Orleans, June 21.

The steamship United States has arrived at her wharf in this city, bringing intelligence from San Francisco to the 1st of June, 15 days later than was received by the Daniel Webster.

The through trip from San Francisco has been one of the shortest on record. The Isthmus R. R. has been so far completed that a trip across was made in six hours.

The Independence and North Star sailed from Aspinwall on the 15th for New York, with 250 passengers and a million in gold on freight.

The Illinois, which left on the same day, had $750,000 on freight.

Latest accounts from Acapulco report that that place was still under a close blockade.

Further accounts from Granada throw considerable doubt on previous report of a successful revolution.

The jury in the case of Mr. Dillon, French Consul at San Francisco, charged with violation of neutrality laws of the U. S., had failed to agree, and were discharged. His examination commenced on the 23d, and during its progress the court room was filled, the case having excited the deepest interest.

The Marysville and San Francisco papers give accounts of several fires in those cities. The losses generally are not heavy.

A fire has also occurred in Merceda, destroying considerable property.

Intelligence had been received at San Francisco, announcing safety of steamer Sea Bird, which had been previously supposed lost.

Considerable snow had fallen at Georgetown.

The news from the mines continues of an encouraging nature—the yield was satisfactory. The crops come in finely. Further difficulties from the Indians are reported in different sections of the State.

The President of Legislative Council of Washington Territory was accidentally drowned at Puget's Sound.

CITY LAND OFFICE.

ALL who have Real Estate to sell, will remember that my Land Office is No 18 East Water St.

Therefore if you intend to come, which is the correct one. When any property is given me to be sold, and I obtain a purchaser at the owner's price, I will hold the owner responsible for my Commission, whether he has a good title or not. I have sold several and the limits of the owner after the labor and expenses of several days, and when the title was looked into it was imperfect, so there was a failure although I performed my part and received no pay. I therefore shall pursue the same honorable course as the attorney. If the case is lost for the want of good and sufficient evidence to prove the fact, it is not his fault, he charges his fee and gets it. So I a Land Agent should be entitled to my fee when the labor is performed.
